

Casey's Circle supports all families of children with special needs, with an extra focus on the most medically complex. Many children that experience a brain injury have life long challenges. We are here to help. Our goal is to make the day-to-day challenges a little easier and provide opportunities for you to focus on the stuff that really matters- being a kid/family and making memories!

For more info, contact: marty@caseyscircle.org