

Medical Cannabis and Traumatic Brain Injury

Research has shown that administering medical cannabis after a traumatic brain injury may help protect brain cells and long-term cognitive function. It has also been shown to reduce excitotoxicity, oxidative stress and inflammation.

To learn more, visit
www.texasoriginal.com

Texas Original
Compassionate Cultivation

Additional Benefits:

- Decrease nausea
- Improvements in depression
- Increased appetite
- Improved mood
- Better sleep

Texas CUP License #0005