

Every Child's mission is to create a system that ensures children with disabilities grows up in families instead of institutions. Every Child believes that all children can grow up in a family. Even children with the most significant disabilities and fragile medical conditions can live with families.

For more info, visit: www.everychildtexas.org